Notification dated 19th December 1963

Regulations Governing Moderation and Gracing in connection with the University Examinations.

No. R1-362/63-64. Gracing up to one per cent of the maximum marks each part or group not exceeding a maximum of two per cent in any single subject treating the aggregate also as a subject by itself be done.

Note —For purpose of gracing, the term "Subject" referred to in Regulation No 1 is defined as a unit which has a separate minimum for passing Whenever a separate minimum is prescribed for an aggregate, it shall be deemed as a separate subject for purposes of determining the amount of gracing

2 There should be no gracing or moderation in respect of post graduate examinations like M A , M Sc , D.E etc.

(a) "Gracing shall not affect the class obtained or the relative rank of the student ",

3 Only the Boards of Examiners are competent to determine the extent and nature of moderation. The recommendations of the Boards of Examiners should be placed before the Results Committee of the Syndicate for consideration in the first instance and brought before the Syndicate for approval

4 In the case of candidates who secure 50 per cent of the maximum fixed or more on the aggregate, a maximum grace marks of three per cent for any subject may be allotted, the aggregate also being considered as a separate subject by itself with the proviso that gracing does not exceed one per cent of the maximum marks in each group or part

5 When the results of an examination are declared in parts, the maximum marks in each part shall be taken as a unit for purposes of finding out the maximum number of marks available for gracing

6 When the results of an examination are not declared in parts, the whole of the examinations shall be taken as a single unit (Part) for purposes of determining the amount of gracing.

For e.g., the results of the following examinations are not declared in parts :—

F L.

B.L

Engineering and Medicine (Although parts are mentioned in II-M.B B.S. each is a unit by itself and the before examination under a part must be regarded as a "Whole" "examination).

7 In the case of a candidate who appears for an examination in one or more subjects under "Ordinance" the total maximum of the subject or subjects under Ordinance for which the candidate has appeared should be taken as the maximum, irrespective or whether the candidate takes the examination in all the Ordinance subjects, or not.

8 In the case of other examinations where exemptions are allowed (e.g., Medicine, Law) a candidate appearing for unexempted subject or subjects only the maximum of the said subject or said subjects for which he has appeared shall be taken as the maximum irrespective of whether the candidate takes the examination in all the unexempted subjects or not

9 Fraction of a mark (even though it is less than half) in gracing calculation, should be rounded off to the next higher integer.

The above regulations will come into effect from 20th November, 1963.

(Approved by the Academic Council at its Meeting held on 3rd September 1960 and 14th November 1963 and assented to by His Highness the Chancellor in letter No. A2-146 73/63-64 dated 19th November 1963 and 17th December 1963).
